

Deputy Commercial Manager

Brentwood School Sports Centre – Brentwood, Essex

Brentwood School is one of UK's leading independent co-educational day and boarding schools for boys and girls. Its extensive sports facilities include a 25m swimming pool with separate learner pool, 2 fitness suites, 2 aerobics studios, a 7 badminton court sports hall, 4 squash courts, a functional training gym, 2 astroturf pitches and a 6 lane athletics track.

Since 1986, Brentwood School Enterprises has opened the School's sports facilities for public use and now has in excess of 1,800 private members, a highly successful swimming lesson programme and over 50 club and sporting group bookings. A second substantial sports facility, planned for 2027, will more than double this internal space, with provisions for a 9 badminton court hall, a climbing wall and indoor cricket facilities.

We are seeking an experienced assistant manager who is looking to take the next step in their career. With a strong operational background in sports and leisure provision, and a keen eye for detail, you will manage the operations of the Centre on a daily basis, ensuring the highest standards of safety and customer care for all users. Working in close coordination with the Commercial Manager, you will manage all aspects of facility operations, establish areas for commercial development and improvement, promoting and marketing the business and coordinating staff towards achieving growth.

What you can offer us:

Acting as part of the Duty Manager team, you will schedule and line manage colleagues' activities, champion high lifeguarding standards, take leadership as an emergency responder, monitor operational standards throughout the facility, and identify and track remedial works in liaison with the School's Estates team.

Your sound understanding of risk assessments, lifeguarding standards and staff training techniques will drive the Centre's operations forwards, underpinned by a knowledgeable approach and strong interpersonal skills that engage and enthuse the team.

Above all, you will lead others by displaying the highest standards of behaviour and professionalism towards pupils, customers and colleagues alike.

What can we offer you:

- A highly competitive salary
- Free Sports Centre membership
- Free school lunch (term time)
- Free parking
- Contributory pension scheme
- Discounted medical insurance

Closing date: 16th March 2025

Early application is advised since suitable candidates may be interviewed prior to the closing date
